

TBA Wins Statewide Public Relations and Crisis Communications Contract

The Brand Advocates is honored to have been selected by the Florida Housing Finance Corporation for another three-year term to provide public relations, creative development, community outreach and crisis communications services statewide. Florida Housing is the state's housing finance agency and administers state and federal resources to help provide affordable homeownership and rental housing options for citizens in all 67 Florida counties.

